Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Saturday 23 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Wintry showers in the north and west. Otherwise mainly sunny.

Today:
Further snow showers across the west and far north, especially West Highland Argyll Ayrshire and Galloway, bringing further accumulations. Central and eastern areas staying mainly dry and sunny with only isolated snow showers. Frost early and late, persisting over snowcover.

Tonight:
Further wintry showers in the west and far north, mainly snow inland with the odd one pushing east through the Central Belt. Eastern areas staying clear. Widespread sharp frost.

Sunday:
Wintry showers will affect coastal areas in the far north and the west, with snow where they edge inland. Most central and eastern areas will be dry, sunny but frosty.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Sunny intervals and wintry showers on Monday. Much of Tuesday dry and bright, but rain aand snow spreading to south later. This dying out to leave a mainly dry Wednesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.